

Eurotary 87

Westerlo Belgium

September 17-19th 2010

Eurotary 87: is an association of Rotary Clubs in Europe

a superb weekend: in the Antwerp area open to Rotarians and their partners open to Rotary clubs that were founded in 1987 only programme: a relaxing, exiting and enjoyable programme:

- reception at an ancient castle
- home parties: a pleasant dinner with fellow Rotarians
- a visit behind the scenes to (either or):
 1. diamond tour: diamond cutter, museum, exhibition...
 2. historic Antwerp: cathedral, town Hal, the old city...
 3. abbies and castles: visiting abbies, castles, go back into time
- Saturday night there will be a fantastic gala diner
- a visit to a chocolate factory (partners programme)

accommodation: participants will be accommodated in the Aldhem hotel in Grobbendonk, just to the east of Antwerp.
Home hospitality is available on a limited base.

cost: the cost for this weekend is € 599 for a couple and € 385 for a single.
It includes accommodation (2 nights), meals, visits, transportation, gala dinner and ball.

golf: for those who want to play golf a Rotary golf tournament will be organised just prior to the assembly.
This program is not included in the programme or the cost of the assembly.
The cost of the golf is € 180 and includes welcome drinks, dinner (Thursday evening 16/9) accommodation at the golf hotel, breakfast and the fee at the most beautiful course in Belgium.